

This Level 1/2 qualification is appropriate for learners who are looking to develop significant knowledge and understanding in Health and Social Care and be able to apply their learning to various settings in the Health and social care sector. This qualification is appropriate for learners who are interested in Health and Social care occupations, motivated to complete independent work and challenged by learning through practical and written activities throughout the two-year course. The study of Health and Social care involves understanding the rights and values of individuals who use and work in this industry, identify communication skills and how they can be used for effective communication, describing factors and barriers to communication that help or hinder effective communication, understanding bodily systems and disorders, and learning first aid techniques whilst identifying scenarios that would require medical assistance. Students will engage in both written and practical assessments throughout the two-year course which will allow them to show their understanding of theory and be able to apply it effectively.

Y10	Pupils will know: In Year 10, Pupils will learn the rights and values of individual's within health and social care. Additionally, they will learn about different communication skills that should be used in health and social care, alongside factors and how, personal qualities of carers can promote positive relationships. In regards to coursework, they will be learning about life stages and milestones that individuals go through. This particular unit will be assessed through written tasks and practical tasks.	Pupils will have acquired the skills to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Create professional resources which include key information needed for the Health and Social care sector. • Evaluating their own work through the assistance of feedback. • Conduct a practical activity where they can put their theory into practice. • Work independently • Work towards deadlines and make efficient use of time management. 	Pupils will understand: Pupils will understand how the values of the care underpin every effective practice within the health and social care sector. Pupils will understand how the rights of the individual should remain the top priority and can be included in every day practice regardless of setting. Pupils will understand how to use communication skills in an effective way and to promote good quality care. Pupils will understand which personal quality contribute to effective care. Pupils will understand what life stages individual go through and what milestones they will meet throughout each life stage.	Pupils will complete: Pupils will learn exam content and complete several tasks for one coursework unit during their first year of the course. Assessment: R033 Coursework Deadline: June 2023 R032 Exam : May 2024 Feedback will be given after every internal deadline (Task by task) – This will be in the form of whole class feedback.
Y11	Pupils will know: In Year 11, Pupils will learn about the structure, function diagnosis methods and disorders of three body systems (Cardiovascular, Respiratory and Digestive). Additionally, they will learn how to use basic first aid procedures. Specifically, they will assess the scenes of accidents to identify risks and continuing dangers, understand a range of injuries and be able to apply basic first aid procedures.	Pupils will have acquired the skills to: Pupils in Year 11 will improve on the following skills: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Using a variety of tools to analyse body systems test results. • Working independently • Working towards deadlines and making efficient use of time management. • Conducting a practical activity where they can put their theory into practice. 	Pupils will understand: Pupils will understand how body systems function and how some disorders can disrupt this function. Pupils will understand how different disorders are diagnosed. Pupils will understand how to take measurements for different body tests.	Pupils will complete: Pupils will complete their exam unit which consists of a one-hour exam which is worth 25% of their overall grade. They will also complete two pieces of coursework (one for each unit left) that will consist of 4/5 tasks each. Assessment: R021 Resit Exam – January 2023

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Evaluating their own progress through feedback 	Pupils will understand how to assess scenes of accidents to identify risks and continuing dangers. Pupils will understand how to carry out basic first aid procedures and apply them to a scenario in a health, social care or early years setting.	R023 Coursework deadline: February 2023 R031 Coursework Deadline: May 2023 Feedback will be given after every internal deadline (Task by task) – This will be in the form of whole class feedback.
--	--	--	---	---